

Our pavilion will have solar panels on top to power an underground cistern for watering, and provide electricity for movies and events. A composting toilet, composting areas and an ADA-compliant walking path all around.